

Department of Political Science, Birbhum Mahavidyalaya

CC 1

Western Political Thought

This course helps the students in acquiring knowledge about the western political thought, which helps in the detailed understanding of the western political thinkers and their theories and thoughts.

CC 2

Political Theory

This course helps the students in the detailed understanding of the political theories and helps in political concept building.

CC 3

Indian Political Thought

This course helps the students in the understanding of the Indian political thought, with special reference to Indian thinkers and their thoughts.

CC 4

Indian Government and Politics

This course helps the students in gaining knowledge about the Indian constitution, political system,, which are very important for their knowledge building.

CC 5

Comparative Politics

This course helps the students in developing comparative analysis of the political systems of different countries.

CC 6

Public Administration- Basic Theories

This course helps in building knowledge base of the students about the different administrative concepts and theories.

CC 7

Local Government in India

This course helps the students in developing knowledge about the local government and administration

SEC-I

Legislative Support

This course helps the students in gaining knowledge about the procedures of governance, lawmaking, budget etc.

OR,

SEC 1

Peace and Conflict Resolution

This course offers knowledge about peace and conflict resolutions, perspectives of peace and conflict resolution, theories of international conflict resolution etc.

CC 8

International Relations

This course helps the students in building knowledge about international relations and helps in concept building on issues of international importance.

CC 9

Sociology and Politics

This course helps the students in understanding of different concepts related to political sociology, issues of environment, state, civil society, feminism etc.

CC 10

International Organizations

This course helps the students in developing ideas about different international organizations.

SEC 2

Public Opinion and Survey Research

This course helps the students in developing ideas related to different aspects of public opinion; and helps in concept building on research issues.

Or

SEC 2

Democratic Awareness through legal literacy

This course helps the students in gaining knowledge about the constitutional and democratic issues.

CC 11

Social Movements in India

This course helps the students in developing concepts and knowledge regarding different movements in India.

CC 12

Elementary Research Methods in Political Science

This course offers ideas and concepts to the students related to social science research and research methods.

DSE 1

Select comparative political thought

This course helps the students in developing a detailed understanding of the Indian and Western Political thought.

OR

DSE 1

Advanced Political Theory

This course offers students a detailed knowledge related to different political theories.

DSE 2

Democracy and Decentralized governance

This course provides the students different concepts and ideas on the evolution of the state system, sovereignty, global economy, MNCs , sustainable development goals, NGOs etc.

Or

DSE 2

Understanding Good Governance

This course offers the students a detailed understanding of good governance, forms of governance including democratic governance, e-governance, corporate governance etc. along with global governance and green governance.

CC 13

Indian Foreign Policy

This course provides the students with a good guideline to the understanding of Indian foreign policy and her relations towards her neighbors and other major powers.

CC 14

Contemporary Issues in India

This course helps the students to develop knowledge on the contemporary issues like- caste, secularism, communalism, violence against women, rights of person with disabilities, social backwardness, disaster risk reduction etc.

DSE 3

Public Policy: Concepts and Implications in India

This course helps the students to develop a detailed understanding of public policies in India.

Or

DSE 3

Local Government in West Bengal

This course helps the students to gain knowledge about local government in West Bengal.

DSE 4

Understanding Globalization

This course helps the students to understand different aspects and related issues of globalization.

Or

DSE 4

Political Economy of International Relations

This course helps the students in developing concepts and ideas related to international political economy

