

Department of Sociology, Birbhum Mahavidyalaya

CC 1A

Invitation to Sociology 1

This is an introductory course on the basic building blocks of Sociology. This course equips the students with a thorough understanding of the subject matter, scope and disciplinary musings of Sociology.

CC 1B

Invitation to Sociology 2

This course helps the students in gaining a primary understanding of concepts such as family, kinship,, religion etc. from a sociological vantage point.

CC 1C

Western Sociological Thought 1

This course helps the students to acquire a firm grip on the intellectual traditions and trajectories of European intellectual history.

CC 1D

Western Sociological Thought 2

This course imbues the students with the knowledge of late-modern European sociologists like Weber, Durkheim, Pareto and Simmel .

GE 1

Social Issues in India 1

This course helps the students in gaining an understanding of what ails Indian society from a functional as well as policy perspective. The problems that we discuss in this course are Poverty, Unemployment, and Violence against women etc.

GE 2

Social Issues in India 2

This course helps the students in gaining an understanding of what ails Indian society from a functional as well as policy perspective. The problems that we discuss in this course are communalism, secularism, environmental degradation, issues of castes and tribes of India.